How many ways can you sing hello? Animals come to life in this exciting unit Cock-a-Doodle Moo when singing a “Morning Song” like a pig, horse, snake or cow.....

How many noises does a cow make? Find out how to smack, munch and snore like a cow in a fun chant “This Little Cow Eats Grass”.

In Cock-a-Doodle Moo, enjoy walking down memory lane when you share some other old favourite chants and songs, such as: “Skip to my Lou”, “Old MacDonald”, “The Farmer in the Dell” “Hey Diddle Diddle”, and “Yankee Doodle”.

Lie down and enjoy listening to a beautiful “Cantonese Lullaby” or “You are My Sunshine”, with your little one or read quietly in a corner.

This unit’s literature component “Cock-a-Doodle Moo” has beautifully presented pictures, which follows along with a chant, describing each animal by using an expressive voice – Moooo, Peep, Baaaa, Nei-eigh-eigh!

Bounce, sway, hop, dance, zoom and groove in our next village unit, “Cock-a-Doodle Moo” To help continue your Kindermusik journey, you will enjoy the interesting challenge of learning from your child... Have fun, with Cock-a-doodle Moo.

What makes your child giggle? What makes your child feel emotionally secure? A toddler can seem so emotionally perplexing: needing to be held, feeling the security of loving arms, then in the next moment needing independence, pushing away and emphatically saying, "Me do it!" The Kangaroo has become a symbol of the emotional struggle of the toddler between dependence and independence.

How does a toddler move? Or should I say wiggle? Many songs, dances and activities in this unit were chosen to reflect the importance of movement in life of the toddler. A favourite movement activity is in the story time book – "Watch Me!"

From the gentle sounds of the 'Skye Boat Song' to the humorous unique sounds in 'Leap Frog', Wiggles & Giggles, will definitely excite the toddler and the adults.

"Wishy Washy Wee" is a favourite of many Kindermusik parents. Many parents stating that bath time was a big hassle until Wishy Washy Wee made each bath time session heaps of fun. The book "Pete and PJ", brings water play to life....

To help continue your Kindermusik journey, you will enjoy the interesting challenge of learning from your child... Have fun, with Wiggles and Giggles.

In See What I Saw preschoolers and their families are invited to explore the exciting world of outside play. Your child's imagination will soar as he/she explores Grasshopper Park.

You and your child will:

- Pretend – to find nature treasures and pretend you are a leaf or a feather and get blown around in the windy weather and re-enact a trip to Grasshopper Park.
- Make music with Kindermusik Slide Whistle – by exploring the music concept glissando.
- Play Games – Play a turn-taking game from West Africa, play the Going on a Picnic game and a Musical ball game
- Explore – “Tricky Trails” and climb up into a tree house to “see what you can see”
- Make homemade shakers
- Read two books,
  - “The Ant Picnic Feast”: the adventures of an ant family going on a picnic together and
  - “Can You Find Me?”: a riddle book that encourages thinking skills needed for problem solving

See What I Saw brings more good reasons for Kindermusik families to turn off the television, turn on the music and welcome the many adventures that we can bring to your days together!

Here, There, and Everywhere - In this family-sized version of Kindermusik, the music and activities center around five different family outings: a visit with a friend, an outing at the park, a trip to the city, an afternoon at the aquarium, and a day on the farm.

Your At Home Materials include a hand and finger puppets of Wags—a featured character in the two literature books. Plus, two home CDs of music from class, a home activity guide, and two jambourine instruments. Each item has been carefully created to bring out the music—and the learning—in your family. Specially designed to fit the varying ages and learning abilities of your children, this set will help you bring the learning and the music-making home, as well as become a lasting, well-loved favorite of the toy box and book shelf.

The two Here, There & Everywhere CDs include 48 high-quality recordings of songs and music from class. Soothing flute and guitar instrumentals, silly songs, and nursery rhymes lovingly chosen to give your family a multi-cultural, multi-musical experience.

Enjoy the family friendly board game together where players travel around the board via the city, aquarium, farm, friend's house and a park.

A 42-page activity book full of craft and music-playing ideas Special developmental tips are placed by every activity for a fun learning experience for every age—from your one-year-old, to your seven-year-old. Plus you'll find song lyrics, sheet music, and intriguing trivia about the music you'll hear in class and on your home CDs.
